Delegates to the Denver County Republican Assembly and/or Convention shall be elected or selected at the Precinct Caucuses in accordance with law. The Executive Committee shall determine the total number of Delegates and Alternatives to the County Assembly and/or Convention to be elected at the Precinct Caucuses held within the City and County of Denver. After making allowance for County Officers and District Captains, the total number of Delegate and Alternate positions shall be allocated proportionately to each precinct based on the vote in each Precinct for the Republican candidate for President or Governor in the preceding general election, provided that a minimum of one Delegate and one Alternate shall be allocated for each Precinct.

In addition to the number of Delegates and Alternates allocated to each Precinct, each County Officer and District Captain shall be a Delegate to the County Assembly and/or Convention. In the event the vote in each Precinct for the Republican candidate for President or Governor in the preceding general election cannot be determined with certainty, the Executive Committee may base the Delegate and Alternate allocation on a reasonable estimation of such vote, voter registration within each Precinct, or any other reasonable methodology. Any dispute regarding the election or selection of any Delegate or Alternate to the County Assembly and/or Convention shall be decided by the credentials committee of the County Assembly and/or Convention.

Section 11.3 Call to the County Assembly and/or Convention. The Chairman shall cause the Call for the County Assembly and/or Convention to be distributed or made available to each Delegate and Alternate elected to the County Assembly and/or Convention at the Precinct Caucuses, or sent by mail or email to each delegate and alternate to the County Assembly and/or Convention elected at the Precinct Caucuses not later than ten (10) days nor more than thirty (30) days prior to said Assembly and/or Convention. At the request of the chairman of any District Republican Central Committee, the Call for the County Assembly and/or Convention shall also include the call for districts lying wholly or in part within the boundaries of the City and County of Denver. The Call shall set forth the number of Delegates and Alternates to be elected at the County Assembly and/or Convention and to all other assemblies and/or conventions as may be applicable.

Section 11.4 Election of Delegates and Alternates to State and Higher Assemblies and Conventions. Delegates and Alternates to the County Assembly and/or Convention selected at the Precinct Caucuses or as provided for in these Bylaws shall also serve as Delegates and Alternates to every corresponding Judicial District Assembly, State Senatorial District Assembly and State Representative District Assembly comprised of Precincts corresponding to each District included wholly or in part within the boundaries of the City and County of Denver or shall be selected as otherwise provided for by law or the rules of the Republican Party.

For Precincts corresponding to State Senatorial and State Representative Districts comprised of all or parts of more than one (1) County, in the event the corresponding District Central Committee provides for a delegate allocation formula that is different from the delegate allocation formula utilized to select Delegates and Alternates to the Denver County Republican Assembly and/or Convention, the total number of delegate votes to be cast at the State Senatorial or State Representative District Assembly shall be determined and apportioned by County among the portions of the District which lie in separate counties based on the vote in each Precinct for the Republican candidate for President or Governor in the preceding general election, provided that a minimum of one (1) Delegate and one (1) Alternate shall be allocated for each Precinct. Upon the basis of the apportionment, the Executive Committee or the District Central Committee shall determine the factor necessary to apportion equally among the delegates from the Precincts within the District in the City and County of Denver the total votes to be cast by delegates from the portion of the District lying within the City and County of Denver.

Each County Assembly and/or Convention shall select from among its members the Delegates and Alternates to the state and congressional assemblies and conventions allocated to Denver County by the Colorado Republican State Central Committee and/or the Congressional District Republican Central Committee, or as otherwise allocated to Denver County in accordance with law or rules of the Republican Party.

Each member of the Executive Committee named in Subsections 6.1.1 through 6.1.6 above shall be a delegate to the State and Congressional Assemblies and/or Conventions. The remaining number of Delegates and Alternates to the state and congressional assemblies and/or conventions allowed to Denver County shall be allocated proportionately to each District by the Executive Committee based on the vote in each District for the Republican candidate for President or Governor in the preceding general election, and shall be selected at the County Assembly and/or Convention by the Delegates and Alternates to the County Assembly and/or Convention residing in each District.

Any Delegate or Alternate positions to the state and/or congressional assemblies and/or conventions not filled by the Districts shall be filled in accordance with a reallocation procedure adopted by the Executive Committee.

The selection of all Delegates and Alternates to the state and congressional assemblies and/or conventions shall be ratified by the County Assembly and/or Convention, and the County Assembly and/or Convention shall adopt by resolution the ranking of Alternates to the state and congressional assemblies and/or conventions.

Section 11.5 Voting in Assemblies and Conventions. No proxies shall be allowed or recognized in any Assembly and/or Convention. What is commonly known as the “Unit Rule” shall not be enforced or adhered to.

Section 11.6 Resolutions. Before any resolution dealing with matters relating to the Republican Party Platform or the position of the Denver County Republican Party on any question of public policy may be considered by the County Assembly and/or Convention, such resolution shall be referred to a resolutions committee appointed by the Chairman and ratified by the Executive Committee. All resolutions referred must have been adopted at a Precinct Caucus or be proposed by an eligible Delegate or Alternate to the County Assembly and/or Convention, and must be submitted to and in a form specified by the Chairman no fewer than ten (10) days before the County Assembly and/or Convention, unless the Chairman, the County Assembly and/or Convention, or resolutions committee modifies or extends the time for filing such resolutions or amendments thereto. Resolutions concerning matters relating to the Republican Party Platform or the position of the Denver County Republican Party on any matter of public policy or legislation shall be deemed to be adopted only if approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote by secret ballot of those present and voting.

Article XII Indemnification of Officers and Directors

The Central Committee shall indemnify each director and officer of the Central Committee and the heirs, executors, and administrators of said directors and officers against all or any portion of any expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with or arising out of any action, suit, or proceeding in which they may be involved by reason of their being or having been an officer or director of the Central Committee (whether or not they continue to be an officer or director at the time of incurring such expenses and whether or not the liability was incurred as a result of acts committed prior to the adoption of the Bylaws). Such expenses shall include the cost of reasonable settlements (other than amounts paid to the Central Committee itself), made with the view to curtailment of cost of litigation, except that no sum shall be paid in connection with any settlement unless approved by the Executive Committee and unless the Central Committee is advised by counsel that the officer or director so indemnified was not negligent or guilty of misconduct. The indemnification shall not apply with respect to matters as to which officers or directors shall be finally adjudged, in any such action, suit, or proceeding, to have been negligent or guilty of misconduct, nor shall the indemnity be construed to protect or indemnify officers or directors against any liability to the Central Committee or to its membership to which they would otherwise be subject by reason of willful malfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of their office(s). The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

Article XIII Rules and Parliamentary Authority

These Bylaws shall govern the proceedings of the Central Committee and its District organizations and committees, except for such Standing Rules, if any, that may be adopted to govern the proceedings of the Meetings or Assemblies and/or Conventions of the Central Committee. The most recently revised edition of Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised, shall govern the Central Committee and any of its committees whenever they are applicable and not inconsistent with these Bylaws, the Bylaws and rules of the Colorado Republican State Central Committee, the laws of the City and County of Denver, the election laws of the State of Colorado, and the laws of the United States.

Article XIV
Conflict and Severability Interpretation

Should any of these Bylaws or any standing Rules or special Rules of Order that may be adopted be in conflict with local, state, or federal law, or the Bylaws or applicable Rules of the Colorado Republican State Central Committee or the Republican National Committee, then the portion in conflict shall be deemed inoperative and ineffective to the extent of such prohibition without invalidating any of the other provision or portions thereof. Except as otherwise specifically provided for in the Bylaws, reference in these Bylaws to written notice shall mean a notice sent by mail, facsimile, email, text message, or other form of electronic communication. Any reference in these Bylaws to the singular shall, if the context so requires, include the plural and vice versa, and any use of male, female, or neutral pronouns shall include all genders, as the context may require.

Article XV
Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended in whole or in part by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Central Committee present and voting at a Regular or Special Meeting of the Central Committee, provided that such amendment shall have been presented to the Executive Committee in the form of resolution and adopted by a majority thereof.

Alternatively, the members of the Central Committee may adopt amendments to these Bylaws without approval by the Executive Committee upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members present in person at a meeting called for that purpose. Notice of meetings of the voting members called for approval of amendments to the Bylaws shall be sent by mail or email thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled Central Committee meeting and shall specifically contain a copy of the proposed amendments and the reference to the original language proposed to be amended.

These Bylaws of the Denver County Republican Central Committee, Inc. have been revised and approved by the Members of the Denver County Republican Central Committee, Inc. and are effective as of February 1, 2025.
